Specifications:

Color Category and Black & White Category:

These are images that have minimal post processing. Techniques that enhance the image appearance without changing the pictorial content are allowed. Black and White means a monochrome image, so images using sepia or other tones are allowed. Cropping, sharpening, and removal of intrusive artifacts such as dust specks are allowed but techniques to add to, relocate, replace or remove any element of the original image belong in the open category.

Open Category:

This category encourages the use of multiple images and techniques that alter the original image to create one single photographic composition. Software such as (but not limited to) Corel Painter, Photoshop, Topaz Studio, etc. is allowed. Be creative!

There is NO limit on the time when the photograph was produced but no works previously entered in a Gaston County Art Guild show will be allowed. Art must be in the original media; no copies of duplicates. Each photograph MUST BE printed on photographic paper only. Painted photographs, digital artwork not created through photography, photographs on canvas, or other mixed media artwork containing in part photographs will not be accepted. Limit of one (1) entry per category: Color, or Black and White, or Open. (Limit of 3 entries only.) No markings or signatures on photographs or matting.

Artwork will be accepted based on artistic merit, use of media and appropriateness to the show theme.

Arts on Main and/or GCAG reserve the right to refuse any work that does not meet their standards and specifications as listed on the GCAG website and within this prospectus. A commission will be retained by GCAG on any sales. Guild members - 30%, Non-members - 35%, Under 18 - 15%

Requirements:

All photographs must be framed and wired for hanging. (no gallery wraps) No saw-tooth hangers are allowed. Photographs must be matted in white or off white only or include a white border around all sides of the image. Border must be visible after framing. Identification labels should be affixed to the hanger on back of work. Identification label and inventory card must be printed clearly. All entries must stand for duration of the show.

Liability:

Entries will be treated with care, but each individual artist retains liability for his/her work. The artist is responsible for shipping their art, if applicable.

Awards:

Awards presented by the Gaston County Art Guild.

Under eighteen category ($750.00); eighteen and older ($1000.00)

Work may be for sale but not required.

This project received support from Gaston Arts Council via the North Carolina Arts Council, a division of the Department of Natural and Cultural Resources.
