Gallery Prospectus

“A Visual Celebration of Black Heritage”

Phone: 704-865-4224
Web site: www.gastoncountyartguild.com

Eligibility: All artists 18 years and older who are Gaston County Art Guild members may submit up to 2 entries at no charge to spotlight the contributions of African Americans throughout history and present.

February is Black History Month when we will pay special tribute to the African-American contributions to our society. The show will remain in the galleries for the month of February.

Photography, painting, drawing, sculpture, jewelry, printmaking and fiber are eligible.

Presentation: All works should be prepared in a simple, professional manner and be ready for display.

There is no size limit for 2D works and 2D works on paper should be matted and wrapped or framed under glass. Large oils or acrylics on canvas do not need to be framed, but should be stapled on the back and have painted edges and no saw tooth hangers.

Three-dimensional works will be limited to 200# and the artist is responsible for assembling and positioning heavy or large pieces.

Works not chosen for the main gallery will be displayed on the commons area side and must be available for sale and hang for the duration of the show.

Specifications: All works must be available for sale.

All works must remain hung for the entire duration of the show.

A commission of 30% will be retained on all sales. Each artist will carry their own insurance if desired. Any artist selling a piece of their own work that needs shipped will assume that responsibility.
