

HOLLY DAYS MARKETPLACE

NOVEMBER 10 – DECEMBER 22, 2018

It's time to start Holiday shopping, and we are getting ready to open the Holly Days Marketplace in Arts on the Greenway. Spaces will be available for 6' tables in the Gallery, and wall space will also be available. We ask that artists provide their own tables and set up their own displays. We will help you hang the pieces on the wall for those with hanging art.

Helpful Information:

- Take in and Set up: November 8 - 9, 2018 from 10 AM - 4 PM.
- The Marketplace will be open Fridays and Saturdays 11/10-12/22 from 10 AM - 4 PM
- Fee is $10 for either of the following: ONE space for a 6' table or shorter, or ONE group of hanging items (See information on hanging art below). Please provide your own table, table coverings.
- Tables MUST be decorated and covered to the floor. We ask for a base covering of white or black, and festive decorations that fit with the Holiday season.
- Items under $200 have been the best sellers in the past.
- Pick-up date is January 4 - 5, 2019 from 10 AM - 4 PM.
- First come first choice, no reservations ahead of time.
- Standard Commission of 30% will be retained by GCAG for any pieces sold.
- Resident Artists may participate, after paying the entry fee, and will use current commission.
- Pricing and labeling of items is the responsibility of the Artist.
- Insurance and liability is the responsibility of the Artist.

For artists with photos and paintings, please follow all GCAG submission guidelines. We are asking that hanging art is limited to 4 large pieces (11 x 14 and larger) or up to 10 smaller pieces (for one entry fee). As pieces sell, you are encouraged to bring in more work for sale. We reserve the right to deny pieces based on size should we get a large participation of artists. Wall hanging art will have Gallery Labels provided by the GCAG/AotG, please mark the back of each piece. Inventory sheets will be provided.
